

DISCLAIMER

Please read the following legal statement. By using this website, SECUREINDIANA.ORG (including any sub-pages), you are agreeing to the terms, conditions, and notices given below, which may be changed without further notice:

1. The Indiana InfraGard Members Alliance (IIMA) is a non-profit corporation, as defined by 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, incorporated under the laws of the State of Indiana that has a primary non-profit purpose of focusing on increasing the security of the United States national infrastructures through ongoing exchanges of information relevant to infrastructure protection and through education, outreach, and related efforts to increase the awareness of infrastructure protection. IIMA is not a government agency. "InfraGard" or "the InfraGard program" refers to a cooperative effort that includes the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the private sector. The private sector component of "InfraGard" is represented nationally by the National InfraGard Members Alliance (INMA), and locally by the InfraGard Members Alliances throughout the country like IIMA. To the extent allowed by law, non-member use of the materials and graphics contained in IIMA is prohibited without the written permission of IIMA. All service marks and trademarks mentioned herein are the property of their respective owners. "InfraGard" is a service mark of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Reg. No. 2,230,458. The InfraGard service mark may only be used with FBI approval. Subject to the terms and conditions of a fully executed licensing agreement with the FBI or an authorized sub-license agreement, the INMA and IIMA may use the InfraGard service mark in its corporate name. IIMA's non-profit corporate charter has been approved by INMA.
